THE DERA FARNBOROUGH AMATEUR OPERATIC SOCIETY PRESENT:

SOUTH PACIFIC

The biggest sensation of post-World War Two Broadway and second only to Oklahoma! as the era's longest running musical, it's matchless score and powerful themes have assured "SOUTH PACIFIC" a status all it's own. Based on James A. Michener's "TALES OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC" the musical is set in an island paradise during World War Two and features two love stories which are threatened by the dangers of prejudice and war. The genius of "SOUTH PACIFIC" is this: it is a musical which has deep roots in it's own time and yet, is timeless today with a portrayal of prejudice as a trait not easily overcome.

The story unfolds through it's powerful and memorable musical numbers such as "Some Enchanted Evening," "There is Nothing Like a Dame," "Bali Hai," "I'm Going to Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" and "Younger Than Springtime," which you're sure to be singing for weeks afterwards! The songs are performed by a rich mixture of characters including the irrepressible Bloody Mary, the vivacious Nellie, the charming Emile and the comic Luther Billis. Take a seat and be entertained, yet challenged by our thought provoking production of "SOUTH PACIFIC!"
